

Caput Sextum: Parva probātiō

Nōmen _____

Coniugā sum, esse, fūī, futūrum
in tempore imperfectō:

Coniugā possum, posse, potuī in praesentī:

	Singulāris:	Plūrālis:	Singulāris:	Plūrālis:
i	_____	_____	_____	_____ ii	_____	_____	_____	_____
iii	_____	_____	_____	_____

Trānsfer in Anglicam:

Vitia nostra tolerāre nōn poterimus. _____

What do we call the use of the infinitive in this sentence? _____

Respondē in Latīnā (“ita” aut “nōn”):

Amābatne Mārtiālis Sabidium? _____ Poteratne dīcere quāre? _____

Respondē in tribus verbīs Latīnīs:

Quid Mārtiālis Sabidiō dīcere poterat? _____

PRAEMIUM ADDITUM:

Trānsfer in Anglicam:

Estne “cavē canem” singulāris aut plūrālis?

Mūtā (“change”) numerum (i.e., if the words are plural, make them singular, or if they’re singular, make them plural—changing the second word will require your having studied Capvt VII!):

